Halloween was in full turnout at this year's Octoberfest horse show. Most all the farms participated in the theme decorating and with approximately 500 horses in attendance there was a lot to see. Two of the top winners in the Halloween decorating contest were Phoenix Stables and Farrier Farm. Once again this show is the definition of family friendly. Trick or treating for the kids (and sometimes adults) is Saturday afternoon immediately following the costume class. Since the costume class has been going on for several years everyone comes prepared and every year the costumes get better. Unfortunately this year they had to hold the contest in the main aisle of the barn instead of the ring. The change of venue did not take away any of the creativity. Again Phoenix Stables was on top with a collection of rock stars. Fairfield South came as a full wedding party complete with bride, groom and reverend. The High Tail Acres kids were 101 Dalmatians. We couldn't forget Villa stable with their very creative costumes of a media party impersonating our own Maureen Jenner among others.

For the farms this show doesn't skimp either. Every morning there is a hospitality booth with donuts and coffee that is actually good. This year's progressive aisle party was wall to wall people. Everything from pizza and wings, to cupcakes and moon pies was offered. I think one of the only downers to this show was the weather, there was a lot more rain than anyone needs. Management handled it well by offering warm-ups in the ring.

The majority of classes were well filled with high quality horses. Turner Stables was the big winner in the three-gaited division. Taking blues and tricolors in every class they entered, they were unbeatable this week. Lukens Stables also took home several blues and tricolors in various driving and riding classes. Other barns that had a winning week were Verrill Stables, Fairfield South, and Phoenix Stables. This is one show to put on your calendar for next year!

Five-Gaited

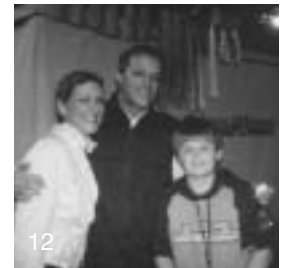

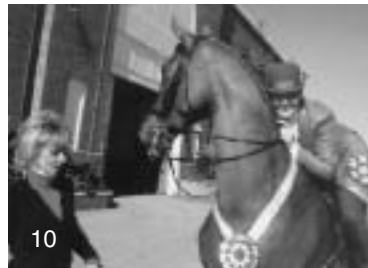

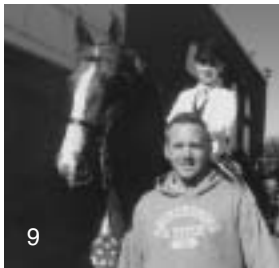

It is great to see a world-class open horse competing in New England. Rob Turner showed the current reserve world's champion five-gaited gelding Worthy's World To Know to victory for new owner David Latham in the open qualifier. Second in the class went to Liquid Thunder and trainer Gary Garone riding for owner Rick Diagle. Both horses elected not to show back in the championship leaving the door wide open for two of the junior/novice horses to make their mark. Winner of the junior/novice class, Jaded, with David Arnold in the irons for owner Juli Baranello, came back to be the reserve open champion. While the second place horse Tale Of The Cat with owner/rider Doreen Weston went on to win the open tricolor. There were only two horses in the junior exhibitor qualifier. Alexis Pearson rode Naughty to another victory. The red ribbon went to Immorality and Krystle Doyle riding for owners Lesley and Emily Cummin. Naughty came back later in the week to take the victory in the Pro-Am class with Alexis sharing the ride with her trainer Jessica Verrill. The most competitive gaited class of the week was the amateurs. Taking the win in both classes was Captain Roseridge with owner Julie Warren riding. The red ribbon in the qualifier went to LA Lady Pedro and Sharon Alemian. The reserve tricolor in the amateur championship went to Champagne's Irish Sea with Julie Barker in the irons for owner Delores Barker.

Allie and Nicky Percoco with Jan Lukens.

Three-Gaited

A beautiful group of open walk trots entered the ring early in the week. Riding the elegant SJ The Smart Lady was trainer Rob Turner for owner Holli Esposito. Gary Garone showed Kalarama's Personality Plus to the red ribbon. In the championship Smart Lady did it again with the reserve going to Unforgettable Kiss and owner Doreen Weston. In the amateur division it was Holli again, but this time she was riding Bugatti's Piñata to victory in both the qualifier and the championship. Second in the qualifier was Light with Kristen DeGroot riding for Van Guard Stables, LLC. Just to make sure she didn't miss a three-gaited class Holli also showed her long time favorite CH Sightline to victory in the ladies' class. For the junior exhibitors CH Cagin Martini and Alexandra Percoco marched around the ring like they owned it to win both the qualifier and the championship. Second in both classes went to FER Feel The Rush expertly ridden by Thomas Santaferra for owner Western Car Company LLC.

Fine Harness

There were two horses in the fine harness division. Gaits of Glory WF driven by Jon Douglas for owner Laurie McGuire took home both the blue in the qualifier and the tricolor in the championship. Second and reserve went to the timeless Kendall Jackson with owner Nancy Cashman-Reed at the lines.

Kevin Tomasko and Caren DuBuc all smiles after Undulata's Jimmy Hollywood's victory.

Park

The junior exhibitor park division is becoming one of the more competitive divisions of a horse show. Octoberfest was no different. Winning the qualifier in commanding style was Romantic Manifesto with Emily Nichols in the irons for owner Karen McGee. The extreme motioned He Is The Heir with Margaret Kennedy riding for Phoenix Prophecies was reserve. In the championship CSF Spesally and Emily Spencer took the top spot with He Is The Heir and Margaret Kennedy named reserve. A huge qualifier of amateur horses was unquestionably won by Reggie's Indigo Jim and Holli Esposito. Second in this competitive class was Affirm's Bright Future, with owner Deedee Ludlam in the irons. Reggie and Holli came back in the championship to win it all with Affirm's Bright Future again taking reserve. A talented group of three-year-olds was won by Oh Spheir Me and Jessica Verrill for Montview Vineyards. David Arnold showed Rosewall's River Dance to second for owner Vi Oliver. The junior/novice class was won by WC Mister Splish Splash with Denise Vespa riding for owner Warner's Horse Transport. Sally Kropp catch rode The Cardiac Kid to victory in the open qualifier for owner Dorothy Cobb. The red ribbon went to Future Perfect ridden by Christie Milbury for owners Wendy and Fred Zehnder. In the championship these two horses traded places with Future Perfect taking home the tricolor and The Cardiac Kid, this time ridden by owner Dorothy Cobb, taking reserve.

Show Pleasure

The largest division of the show was the show pleasure division. The 14 and under riders were very competitive with Callaway's Creme Caramel ridden by Kaylee May for owner Mary Coon trotting out with the blue in the qualifier. The red ribbon went to Chi Town Willy ridden by owner Savannah Pike. In the championship Callaway's Creme Caramel had to settle for reserve. Moving up to win the championship was CH New York Entertainer and Stephanie Shoubash for Jessica MacLeod. In the 14-17 year old division Doubletrees Number One Son was undeniable winning both the qualifier and the championship ridden by Emily Nichols for Kathy Nichols. The second and reserve went to Party For Two and Alexis Pearson. The novice rider class was won by Brittany Ford showing her own Worthy's Nite Move. Once again sweeping the adult division it was Undulata's Jimmy Hollywood and Caren Dubuc adding to their collection of blues and tricolors. Second and reserve went to Night Sight, trying out a new division with Kate Codeanne for Cedarledge Farm.

For the five-gaited pleasure horses, Caren Dubuc expertly piloted Hold That Pose to wins in both the qualifier and the championship. Second in the qualifier went to Don't Ask Why W.R.F. owned and shown by Sharon Stoltz. In the championship Platinum's What A Rush and Marissa Gillispie moved up to take the reserve ribbon.

Chris Rossiter, champion Lynn Carol Schweikert and Peter Axtel.

Show Pleasure Driving

Looking as though he is returning to his old form, CH Candle Dan commandingly won both the pleasure driving qualifier and championship; his driver in both wins was Jayne Romano. A new face in the division Callaway's Steer Me Right with owner Linda Taylor at the lines was second and reserve.

Park Pleasure

The park pleasure division was limited to a junior/novice horse qualifier and championship this year. Winning both was the breathtaking colt of Debra Faulkner, Celebrity Son shown by Rob Turner. The reserve in both classes was taken home by Harlem's Lunar Eclipse with Colleen Fitzpatrick in the irons for owner Emily VanDuren.

Country Pleasure

Putting in two sparkling shows was Heads Will Turn and Alexandra Percoco riding for Jayne Romano to win both the junior exhibitor qualifier and championship. Second in the qualifier went to Mary's Immeasurable Asset and owner Alexandra Fraccola. The reserve ribbon in the championship was awarded to the second place horse in the novice rider class, Mr. Diamond Merchant and Holly Sarette. Winner of the novice rider class was Strictly Adventure and Shelby McKenney riding for owner Jenn Picarello. For the adult riders it was Sipping Champagne with owner rider Lynn Carol Schweikert taking the blue in the qualifier. They had to settle for reserve in the championship to winner Spock with Kate Leach riding for Cedarledge Farm.

A very full ASB hunter division was swept by Revelation's Brave Heart with owner Melissa Beckett in the irons. Coming in second and reserve champion was Tasha Belle and Nicole McLaine for Dawn Deltorchio.

Undefeated in the western division was Celtic Charmer and Lisa Gailunas, they won both the qualifier and the championship and also the Saddle & Bridle Shatner class. Second in the qualifier and reserve in the championship went to Heart Flame and Brian Campbell. The red ribbon in the Shatner class went to Bridget's Fire Design and Holly Turniel.

Country Pleasure Driving

Completing a great year was Harlem's Last Call again winning both the driving qualifier and championship with owner Sharon Stoltz at the lines. Countess Dakota and Susan Bialowas were a strong second and reserve.

Roadster Ponies

The magnificent Free Willy put on a spectacular show to win both the amateur qualifier and combined championship with owner Jayne Romano at the lines. Courtney Cahill and AG Houdini couldn't quite catch up and were second in the qualifier and reserve in the championship. Winner of the open class was Heartland Double Trouble and Bob Funkhouser.

Hackney Ponies

For the Hackney ponies it was the exciting Totally Excellent with owner Nathan Roden at the lines, taking the win in both the qualifier and the championship. Second and reserve went to Heartland Classic and Maureen Quackenbush.

Hackney Pony Pleasure Driving

In the pleasure driving division Shaina Pilz drove Kytha to victory in both the qualifier and the championship. Movado Masterpiece with Christy Abend driving for Maureen Quackenbush was second and reserve.

Friesians

Ten lovely Friesians entered the ring for the in hand class. With an outstanding win was Frans

Fan'e Hurdranderdysk led by Jan Lukens for owner Charmane Delisle. Frans Fan'e Hurdranderdysk continued to win throughout the week taking both the pleasure driving qualifier and the championship and also placing second in the costume class. Winner of the costume class and second in both the driving qualifier and championship was Teake S and Kristen DeGroot for Van Guard Stables LLC. In the pleasure walk/trot class the blue was taken home by Ulco ridden by Eugene Sweeney for Marcala Garzoni. Ulbe van der Dolen and Elizabeth Barbour took home the red. Ulco returned in the championship for the tricolor with Thys and Danielle Barasso riding for Phillip Bailey moving up to take the reserve. In the open class Steffan S ridden by owner Danielle Barasso trotted out with the win. Second went to Hattie ridden by Annie Benson for owners Rosemary and Gary Saccocia. Teake S and Kristen came back strong to win the open pleasure championship. Jorrit and Ethel Nye for Delia Fox moved way up to take the reserve.

Equitation

The 8 & under walk & trot riders were the first equitation class of the week. Continuing a family tradition Carly Lettre took home the blue ribbon. Second in the class went to Chloe Hauville. The 9 & 10-year-old class was won by Alexis Walther with second going to Hannah Gliniewicz. The 10 & under UPHA Challenge Cup class was a preview of the championship. Adding another blue to her collection was Molly Codeanne. The red ribbon went to Conor Henry. In the championship it was Molly again with a flawless ride taking home the tricolor. Conor Henry was a strong reserve. Showing her versatility and making the cutest picture was the Friesian Hattie carrying Isabelle Scott to victory in the saddle seat lead line class. Abigail Tate was second.

There was no 14 & under equitation class offered at the show so both groups were combined in the 17 & under qualifier. Melissa Swain and Alexis Taylor Pearson battled it out in both the qualifier and the NEHC Medal class. Coming out on top in both classes was Melissa with Alexis taking the second in both classes. The championship was a different story. Putting in a strong, solid ride Alexis trotted up to take the tricolor. Reserve went to Gavin Gagnon.

The pleasure equitation division did offer a 14 & under class. The blue was captured by Holly HacsKaylo. Second in the class went to Brittany Guillemette. In the 15-17-year-old age group it was Taryn Marshall with the win. The red ribbon went to Chelsea Tevanian. In the championship Taryn Marshall took home the tricolor with Holly HacsKaylo in reserve.

Miscellaneous

The walk and trot division also offered a pleasure section. Flawlessly moving over to the 8 & under pleasure class was Carly Lettre riding Medomak Ever Beaming with the win. Second went to Madeline Capodilupo on Aristocraticallee. In the 9 & 10 year old qualifier Alexis Walther showed Diamond's Lady Ariele to victory. Zara and Brittany Schilling were a strong second. In the championship Medomak Ever Beaming and Carly left the ring with big smiles and the tricolor. Diamond's Lady Ariele and Alexis Walther were a strong reserve.

The academy adult division was swept by Jess Prosman and Gayle Lenihan. The two were first and second respectively in the walk/trot/canter pleasure and equitation classes. Winner of both adult walk/trot classes was Eliene Taylor. The academy 17 & under walk/trot/canter pleasure and equitation classes had to be split. Winner of section A for both classes was Katie Bovenzi. Second in section A of the pleasure class went to Olivia Arnold. Second in section A of the equitation class was Lisa Antalik. MacKenzie Leveque was the winner of both classes in section B. The section B pleasure red ribbon went to Olivia Arnold with the red in the equitation going to Hannah Arnold. In the 17 & under academy walk/trot division Allison Wright riding Maple Ridge Rare Event swept the division. Cam Milton riding The Pinnacle was second in the pleasure class with second in the equitation going to Marissa Cusick.
